

Workshop “Catholics, Modernity and the Media”

5th – 7th June 2014

Academia Belgica, Via Omero 8, 00187 Roma

Programme

Thursday, June 5, 2014

P.M.

- 5:00 Martin Baumeister (German Historical Institute, Rome)
Welcome and introduction
- 5:30 Keynote lecture
Emiel Lamberts (KU Leuven, BE)
The Origins of Vatican Press Policy from Pius IX to Leo XIII
- 6:15 Questions and discussion

Friday, June 6, 2014

A.M.

- 10:00 Ignazio Veca (SNS, Pisa)
A Media Pope: the Ambiguous Modernity of Pius IX (1846-1848)
- 11:00 Luca Sandoni (SNS, Pisa)
French Catholic journalism between ultramontane independence and episcopal control. Louis Veuillot’s “L’Univers” vs bishops Sibour and Dupanloup (1850-53)
- 12:00 | Break
- 12:30 Sante Lesti (SNS, Pisa)
Anything but Boche! The image of Pope Benedict XV in the French Catholic Press during the First World War

P.M.

- 02:30 Francesco Tacchi (SNS, Pisa)
"The propaganda of mistake can be fought just by spreading the truth": genesis and development of the Opera Nazionale per la Buona Stampa in Italy (1915-1918)
- 03:30 Patricia Quaghebeur (KADOC-KU Leuven, BE)
The involvement of religious institutes in the 'Good Press' strategy of the Church. The case of the publishing houses of the abbey of Averbode, 1897-2014
- 04:30 Raffaella Perin (Università Ca'Foscari, Venezia)
"The radio has no rivals in itself". Pius XI and the birth of Vatican Radio
- 05:30 | Break
- 06:00 Keynote lecture
Frank Bösch (Universität Potsdam, DL)
The Transformation of Religion in the Age of Television

Saturday, June 7, 2014

A.M.

- 09:00 Elena Mazzini (German Historical Institute, Rome)
Modernisation, Catholicization and Grass roots perspective. The case of Italian Diocesan press during the Thirties
- 10:00 Matteo Baragli (SNS, Pisa)
The 'Great Political Novelty' of the Fascist Modernity. The Italian cleric-fascist press and the birth of the Regime (1919-1929)
- 11:00 | Break
- 11:30 Florian Bock (Eberhard Karls Universität, Tübingen, DL)
Der Fall „Publik“ – katholische Presse in der Bundesrepublik um 1968
- 12:30 Martin Baumeister (German Historical Institute, Rome)
General conclusions and planning of future activities